Bob stated that the David Bixby property is not in compliance. He suggests that the case be turned over to the town attorney. Bob presented pictures to the Board and stated the septic system does not meet standards. It was decided that the consent agreement against David Bixby was not fulfilled and will be turned over to the town attorney.

Town Clerk/Treasurer Report:

Mary stated that the ballot machines were tested this past week and all went well.

Kit the Constable posted the election warrants on Monday at the following locations: Post Office, Town Office, Washington General, Jackson's Store, Linscott Feed and Washington Auto.

Sandy is signed up for a WebEx training class next Wednesday for Vital Records.

Mary will meet with Peter Yanz on Thursday from FEMA to review paperwork.

Election booths will be set up on Monday.

Mary went to Washington Manor today; eight residents and two staff members voted absentee ballots.

Leo Thibodeau - reimbursement on excise tax on vehicle:

Leo Thibodeau will receive reimbursement from the town due to special circumstance.

Quit Claim deed for Marr Cemetery, plot #344:

Signed by the Selectmen; David Williams was a witness.

Questions & Comments:

The town received a thank you card from the Grinnell family for flowers.

Annual office training for office personal will be held at the Union town office on Sept. 5, 2018. This training is required by law.

Town resident David Williams inquired about the dirt roads in town being hard packed and white; wondering if this is caused by calcium chloride. Wes stated that the white is from the salt, as the salt will make the road hard packed. He also stated that the town crew uses very little salt on the dirt roads and confirmed that calcium chloride is never used on dirt roads.
